SECTION 1: IMPORTANT SUMMER FINANCIAL AID FACTS

ENROLLMENT REQUIREMENT

Full-time Enrollment: Students enrolled in at least 12 credits may be considered for both Lewis & Clark institutional aid and federal aid.

Part-time Enrollment: Students enrolled in less than 12 credits may be considered for federal aid only.

Option: You may petition the Financial Aid Office to request consideration for Lewis & Clark institutional aid.*

LIMITED SEMESTERS OF INSTITUTIONAL AID:

Use of financial aid during the summer counts against your remaining semesters of financial aid eligibility.

PRORATED AID:

Summer tuition charges are significantly discounted. Therefore, eligibility for institutional aid is prorated. For example, if Lewis & Clark institutional aid covers 25% of tuition at the full-time fall/spring tuition rate, it will cover 25% of the discounted summer tuition rate.

FEDERAL FUNDING LIMITS:

Federal aid programs have regulated annual maximums. Use of these funds in summer reduces the amount available to you for Fall 2026 and Spring 2027 semesters. Example: If the annual maximum federal student loan amount is $4,500, an eligible student will be offered $2,250 per semester for fall and spring only enrollment OR $1,500 per semester for summer, fall, and spring enrollment.
